

Royal Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain

University of Nottingham

Master of Pharmacy (MPharm)

Report of Step 3 event towards degree accreditation; Master of Pharmacy degree of the University of Nottingham, Malaysia Campus, May 2007

1. Introduction

The Royal Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain (RPSGB) is the former statutory regulatory body for pharmacists and pharmaceuticals. It is also the United Kingdom body for pharmacy education in Great Britain.

This is the report of a Step 3 accreditation visit to the University of Nottingham Malaysia Campus to assess the University of Nottingham's MPharm degree delivered in that country. The Society has come for the external accreditation of degrees at units of degree delivery in its constituent institutions from 2005. Successful completion of all three steps is necessary for accreditation of the overseas provision.

2. The accreditation team

Role	Designated Officer of the Unit of the Pharmaceutical Curriculum Unit Providers, RPSGB and vice versa
Gender Day	Pharmacist Accreditation, RPSGB
Policy Review	Quality Assurance and Regulation, RPSGB
Teaching Study	Pharmacist Accreditation, The Robert Gordon University Aberdeen
Step 3 Report	Pharmacist Accreditation, Pharmacy Quality Assurance (Pharmaceutical Curriculum Unit Providers) and students' experience of the RPSGB Council and members of the Society's Education Committee
Step 3 visit for Approval	Pharmacy Accreditation Support Manager, University of Cardiff, Curriculum, regulation

There were no representatives of interest from the members of the accreditation team.

3. The accreditation event